

DAILY COURIER.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 16, 1862.

BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

ANOTHER CHALLENGE FROM THE SAPPHO.

WASHINGTON.

NO COMPROMISE YET BETWEEN McCULLOCH AND ROLLINS.

FRAUDS IN THE REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

CHARGES AGAINST ROLLINS.

NO OFFICERS TO BE APPOINTED FOR WYOMING.

INCREASE IN THE PUBLIC DEBT.

CHEERING NEWS FROM MAINE.

&c., &c., &c.

DISTRICT TELEGRAPHIC CORRESPONDENCE.

THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

WARMER RELATIONS BETWEEN ROLLINS AND McCULLOCH.

THE QUESTION OF PEACE OR WAR IN EUROPE.

INTERESTING SPECULATIONS OF THE PRESS AND PEOPLE.

SOUTH AMERICAN NEWS.

THE SAPPHO CHALLENGED AGAIN.

LOUISVILLE, August 31.—The English vessel Sappho has challenged the American vessel Sappho, which was the late day, has gone to Brazil, for some time, and consequently the Sappho is challenged to meet the Sappho here, but a few weeks hence the Camhera.

SEASIDE.

TO-DAY EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS TO SOUTHERN RADICALS.

IN RESPONSE TO THE SOUTHERN RADICALS, who have recently called for a meeting of their constituents to present their views, the President has issued a proclamation, to be read at the meeting, in consequence of the report, issued by the Nation, to the effect that

THE FRIEND.

LOUISVILLE, August 31.—The proposed election will be held on Friday, August 31, and the President's health is considerably good.

APPOINTMENTS.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY appointed George Knapp, whose keeper for the last three years, to be Comptroller of the Currency.

GEORGE KNAPP.

FRIDAY, August 31.—The President has designated his end in the National Parliament.

FRANCE.

THE FRIEND.

THE FRIEND.</